

The Artist:

Cameron Knight Watson

"I was born and raised in the Mississippi Delta at Greenwood. As a child I used to ride on the back of my St. Bernard through the fields of white Delta snow and dream of painting rainbow skies. As I grew older, I developed an eye and love of the land which I could convey through brushstrokes on canvas. I carried these memories of this place with me to the Low Country in Savannah, Georgia where I now reside. The Delta is never far away from me. I return as often as I can to catch another glimpse and explore, hoping to uncover something else I might never have seen."

Cameron Knight Watson is a visionary Southern artist who paints the varied beauty of the Yazoo-Mississippi Delta. Articles about her life and work have appeared in The Greenwood Commonwealth, Delta Magazine, Southern Crossroads: Perspectives of the Tribe, and Delta Seen: Delta Magazine. Her original oil paintings are available as artwork on mugs, throw pillows, backpacks, as art prints, wall tapestries, comforters, beach towels, phone cases, notebooks, t-shirts, tote bags and stretched canvases.
